Ratify Peace Treaty; Appropriate Have Quite a Business Look, $20,000,000; Pass Hull Army | but Fail to Show Appalling

Washington, Jan. 1.—When Congress convenes on Wednesday, after the holiday recess, it will find mapped out for its guidance a definite Administration programme. This plan for the short session work has

1—The ratification of the Paris treaty of peace which will be transmitted to the Senate with an accompanying message from the President. panying message from the President.

2—An appropriation bill carrying $20,000,000, the peace indemnity for Spain provided for in the treaty, and which, under its provisions, must be paid to Spain by July next.

3—Passage of the Hull bill, which seeks to increase the standing army to 100,000 men and provides for colonial troops in addition to be enlisted in the Philippines. Porto Rico and Cuba. 4-Enactment of legislation which will provide for an increase of the navy along the lines suggested by Secretary of the Navy Long in his annual report.

5-Authorization of the building of the Nicaragua canal either through the medium of the Maritime Canal Company or under the direct control and direction of the government of the United States. 6—Passage of the remaining appro-priation bills, so that there may be funds enough to run each department of the government until next December.

Briefly, that is what the Administration wants. It does not desire any attempt at carrency reform, and above all else it is 'itnxions to avoid any necessity for an extra ession of the Fifty-sixth Congress.

The young man gave his name as Samuel Peel and his home as Madison, N. J. He represented that he had a brother in the volunteer maks at Manila. His soldler brother, he said, had discovered a peculiar "begal" which the Philippine Islanders used to externaliste moths from their heaver lackets and slik and wood blankets. Then the gilb young man opened a bag and displayed a peek of Jersey beans scented with avender water.

He was selling the beans, he confided to the prespective purchaser, to complete his theological education. He harvested about $100 for 20 cents worth of beans in Plainfield, and left, presumably for a theological scillary.

At the conclusion of the service the body was taken to Mount Olive Cemetery and placed temporarily in a vault, pending its removal to Mexico.

Before the body was taken to the church, there were brief services at the house attended mainly by the official staff of the logation and the reintitives and intimate friends of the family. The services at the house attended were very brief, consisting of a low mass, followed by absolution services, Father Charles M. Bart, assistant pustor of St. Matthew's, was the celebrant.

The honormy pullbearers were the German Ambassandor, Secretary Hay, Secretary Gage, the Ministers from Guatemala and Venezuela, Senator John T. Morgan, Representative Hit, ex-Secretary John W. Foster, and Mr. John W. Thompson.
